

Coming Soon!

Opening in May 2016, the Jumping the Broom exhibition will examine the ways in which weddings have been celebrated in African American communities throughout the last century. It explores the cultural traditions, fashion practices, and unique aspects of close knit celebrations. Jumping the Broom, also considers the importance of the family unit and how each family celebrates moments of transition and joining. Jumping the Broom will transcend time while revealing the true meaning of love.

