

Did You Jump the Broom?

If so, please see below for further details!

Jumping the Broom: Celebrating African American Weddings in Maryland is a way to honor the sacred institution of marriage by celebrating the traditions, fashion trends and the intricate bond between a husband and wife — it all starts with the jumping of the broom. This exhibition will be supported largely in part by community participants. If you would like the opportunity to be a part of this exhibition by showcasing the broom used during your ceremony, please contact BDM Curator of Exhibitions Shakia Gullette at shakia.gullette@maryland.gov on or before March 4, 2016.
