

BANNEKER-DOUGLASS MUSEUM FOUNDATION

Presents

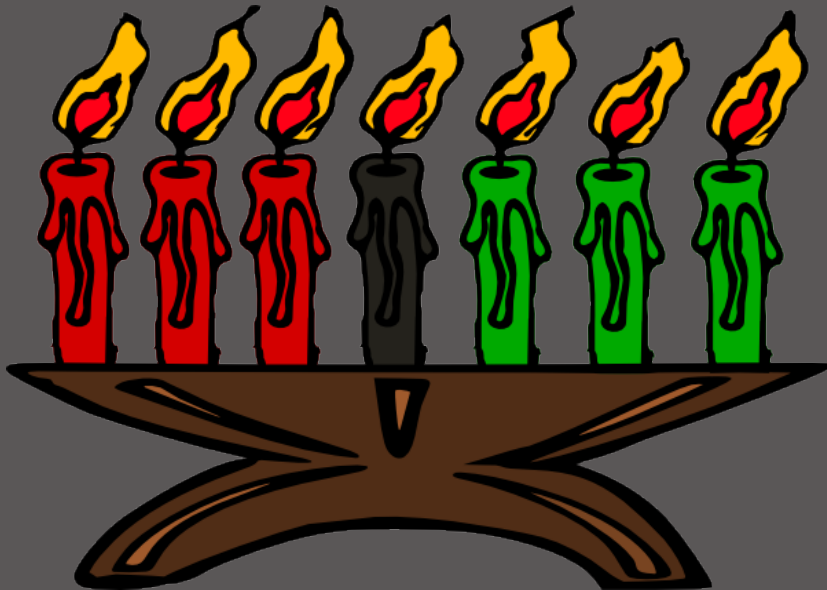

End of the Year Kwanzaa Celebration

Saturday, December 10, 2016

1:00 – 3:00 PM

Join us for our annual Kwanzaa Celebration, honoring African heritage and African American culture! Visitors will learn about the history and significance of Kwanzaa from Kwanzaa experts, Bette McLeod and Cheryl McLeod. Participants will enjoy the excitement of the seven day celebration through dance and hands-on-crafts, while also indulging in traditional Kwanzaa food.

Registration is encouraged (but not required) by December 9 at 410-216-6180 or bannekerdouglassmuseum@gmail.com.

BANNEKER-DOUGLASS MUSEUM

84 Franklin Street | Annapolis, Maryland 21401

bdmuseum.maryland.gov

The Banneker-Douglass Museum is a unit of the Maryland Commission on African American History and Culture, which is part of the Governor's Office of Community Initiatives.

